Jamestown, North Dakota hosts a variety of walking, biking, and recreation trails throughout the city. The trail systems shown provide up to 10 miles of enjoyable walking. These trails are maintained year round to provide easy access.

Stay active and enjoy the history of downtown Jamestown by journeying on the 1.5 mile self-guided Get Fit & Explore walking path, while enjoying the education of the Talking Trail. For route information, visit one of the numerous locations, including the Art's Park, Zonta Park, Franklin School, and more. Look for the posted sign which features a route map.

In addition to these trails, check out the hiking & biking nature trails that provide more of a challenging experience, including White Cloud, Pipestem, Overlook, and Split Rock trails. Maps and more information can be found at discoverjamestownnd.com.

There are also indoor walking opportunities at the Jamestown Civic Center, Two Rivers Activity Center, and Buffalo Mall. Call for hours of availability.

Grab your shoes, strollers, in-line skates, or bikes and get out and discover your local recreational trails!
