

Appendix C On-site Sewage Treatment Systems Technical & Education Board

A. General

The On-site Wastewater Technical Review Board shall be at minimum comprised of environmental health representatives from adopting authorities. The board may include members from North Dakota Department of Health, industry, and licensed installers.

B. Registration of Products

1. The Board shall develop product review and registration process and maintain a list of registered products for on-site sewage treatment systems.
2. The Board shall develop recommended standards for different types of sewage treatment technologies and sewage distribution technologies.
3. Registrations shall be valid unless:
 - a. The design is changed
 - b. The manufacturing process is changed
 - c. The product is recalled for any reason
 - d. The product is found to be defective
 - e. The product is no longer available

C. Continuing Education

1. The Board shall be responsible for continuing education for septic installers.
2. This will include:
 - a. Trainings
 - b. Testing requirements